

Allen FFA Swine Projects

Mrs. Wells (2018-2019 Project Advisor)
Remind 101: @ahspig
Mrs. Schertz
214-876-1661

I. Purchase

- $300-$700, we can easily spend much more if you desire
- The school will only be pulling a trailer to designated weekend shows, Collin County, San Antonio Barrow Show.
- Payment in cash, or check with payee blank (because there are multiple breeders at the sales so the seller of the pig could be 1 or 10 people. In the memo line put your max price to pay. I will bring you a receipt from the breeder with the pig upon delivery.
- You will be responsible for preparing the pen and having feed ready before pig arrives at barn. The pig will be housed at the Pig barn (sand Barn) at the Allen ISD Agriculture Science Project Center. Located at 740 Ingram Ln. Lucas, TX 75002 The feed you will buy will be told to you prior to that day.

II. Fees

- $20 validation tag (required to show at county & major show) (Due: TBA)
- $30 worming/vaccination/antibiotic
- $20-$40 jackpot show entry fees (Dates will be scheduled once dates are confirmed) (Due: Each show varies—either at time of show or a couple weeks prior)
- $20 county entry fee (Due: Livestock Entry Meeting, date TBA)
- $20-$30 per major show entry fee (Due: Livestock Entry Meeting, Date TBA)
- Student and parents will have to sign a barn contract. (Signature pages located in FFA Handbook)

III. Housing

- Project Center: 740 Ingram Lane Lucas, TX 75002
- Pen cleaned daily, waste disposed of in dumpsters
- Wheel barrel emptied daily
- Sand Will Be provided, you will furnish your own pine shavings for the pigs
- Heat lamp in the winter (secured properly and out of reach of animal)
- Barn cleaning schedule set by teacher. Chores will be done on a daily basis with duties divided amongst all students with animals in that barn. The parents will also have duties of monitoring students and helping with lock up, you will be notified when needed.
- We ask for parental visibility so that the pig barn does not become the gathering spot.

IV. Feed

- Available at: D&L Farm and Home 1502 N Church St, McKinney, TX 75069 (972) 562-9995 or Farmersville Grain & Hardware 210 S Main St Farmersville, TX 75442 972-784-7261 (We feed Mormans "ADM" Pig Feed, Linders, or Purina Show feeds)
- I will tell you when to change up feed and how much, at first they will get all they can eat to grow.
- 50 pound sack—$25 – $30
- Animals will be hand feed (so you know exactly how much they are eating each feeding. You will need a feed measuring cup- available upon request at feed store)
- When Instructed - Morning & Evening (7 AM & 7 PM best) (can exchange responsibilities)
- You or a parent must care for the animal twice a day every day (includes weekends and holidays) If you go out of town it is your responsibility to find someone to care for your pig.
- Please inform me if you will be out of town.
- The type of feed will change as animal grows.

V. Supplies

- Storage container (Metal Barrel with a locking lid) (hold all supplies/equipment),
- Feed Scoop / measuring cup
- Feeder (clip on – will hang on the fence)
- Brush (1 for every day use and 1 for shows)
- Heat lamp (will be used when weather gets cold)
- Towels
- Shampoo (NO DISH SOAP)
- Skin conditioner (Lotion,etc...Avon skin so soft, Mane and Tail horse conditioner)
- Measuring Cup

VI. Time Required

- Twice a day
- Exercise (walking)
- Bathing

VII. Shows

- Jackpot Shows—Not required, but highly recommended for student and animal growth and development as a showman.
- Allen FFA local show– free and good practice
- County Show – SECOND WEEK OF JANUARY Myers Park in McKinney (2 DAY EVENT) If the animal is selected to “make the sale” (top 1/3 of the class) will sale on Saturday. The Alumni buyers syndicate will bid on you and your animal at the premium auction- you do not get rid of animal, money is donation to you. Must be vested with the Allen FFA alumni through fundraising efforts in order to benefit at that auction.
- Major Shows: San Antonio Market Swine (Terminal show- does not come home; goes to market)

VIII. Transportation

- Anytime animal leaves project center transportation will be provided by the teacher using a AISD truck and trailer, unless hauling in your own trailer. Please let me know if you are leaving with your animal for Vet reasons, show etc..
- Parents are required to attend the Major Livestock shows. The student will stay in a hotel room with their parent and travel with their parent.

IX. Reimbursements

- Jackpot shows-Basically only for learning experience. On occasion a student could win entry fee back, ribbon, or possibly a belt buckle
- County show-If selected to “make sale” student could possibly earn $300-$600 based upon amount raised by your student and yourself at the Allen FFA Alumni Functions, and your own funding sponsor.
- Major show – If animal makes sale $500 and up. If animal does not make sale market price value.

 If your pig did not attend a major terminal show, you will need to make arrangements to sell the pig and haul off yourself.

 All swine projects are REQUIRED to be out of the barn at the conclusion of Spring break.

When you bring in new animals please be courteous to everyone and quarantine the animal in a trailer for a week prior to introducing into the barn to avoid the spread of diseases. Pigs are like a class of Kindergarten students. :)

- X. If you are interested in showing a pig please let me know ASAP. No later than Sept 14th
a. I will begin buying pigs the first week of September.

XI. Questions

XII. Contact Info

Remind 101: text @ahspig to 81010

Stacy Schertz

Kari Wells

Stacy_schertz@allensd.org

kari_wells@allensd.org

214-876-1661 School Cell